All NASMM companies are required to carry general business liability insurance.

Insurance for Senior Move Management companies is difficult to acquire, and is expensive. Most companies outside of NASMM do not have insurance for this reason.

All NASMM companies are required to take and pass courses in Ethics, Safety, Liability & Risk, and Understanding the Moving Industry.

Working with older adults requires a keen understanding of ethical, safety and risk issues. Companies outside of NASMM do not have this specialized training.

All NASMM companies sign and are required to abide by NASMM's strict Code of Ethics.

Companies outside of NASMM are not guided by any code of professional conduct.

NASMM companies are supported by the NASMM Ethics Compliance Commission, which guides our members' conduct and reviews any complaint alleged against a NASMM member.

Companies outside of NASMM do not provide you with protection from an outside, impartial oversight body. If you have a problem, who will you call?

All NASMM companies are vetted for experience prior to being referred.

Companies outside of NASMM are not vetted for experience.

NASMM companies are part of a professional, global community of over 1000 Senior Move Management organizations.
